

NM CASE

Your window to the world of special education leadership

What is CASE?

- Council for Administrators of Special Education (because we are all about acronyms!)
- An international division of CEC
- A support system for leaders of special education
- Perfect for public school and charter school administrators
- A great fit for those who wear multiple administrative caps

Who are the board members? (Blue shirts)

- President

Executive Director of Special Services
Rio Rancho Public Schools
- President Elect
Christina Velasquez
Student Services Director
Pojoaque Valley Schools
- Secretary
Tamera Wheeler
Director of Elementary Special Education
Rio Rancho Public Schools
- Treasurer
Teresa Carmack
Adjunct Faculty for Special Education
University of the Southwest
- Membership Chair
Christa Kulidge
Director of Exceptional Programs
Farmington Municipal Schools
- Past President
Theresa Griffin-Golden
Director of Secondary Special Education
Rio Rancho Public Schools

The top 10 reasons you should join CASE

10. Keep up to date on special education issues, significant research, practical help, and trends

9. Network, network, network

8. Weekly targeted communications from CEC/CASE

7. Make a difference with policy makers at the local, state and national levels

6. Develop your skills—leading edge information on how to b a better leader

5. Network, network, network

4. Get a mentor/be a mentor—we all can improve together

3. Influence our profession—be part of a like-minded group (if nothing else—commiserate)

2. Add to your own expertise—and that of others

And the number one reason

Improve the educational success of all students (isn't that why we are all here?)

Membership is easy!

- Join CEC/CASE online or by phone
- Use IDEA funds to pay for membership
- Include other administrators and teachers
 - Basic ($65.00)
 - Full ($115.00)
 - Premier ($205.00)
 - District ($1300.00) includes 5 teachers
 -  Make sure to also check CASE ($60.00)– NM division is free

There is another option

- Friend of NM CASE
- Less expensive with fewer benefits ($40.00)
 - No voting or holding of office
 - Not eligible for Maggie Cordova award
